

since 2006, shootings throughout New York City has been on the decline. This all changed after the Covid-19 pandemic. Since the pandemic in 2020, shootings throughout the city has skyrocketed

Shooting Incidents 2006-2010

Shooting incidents where Asian-Americans were victims spiked up significantly in 2020. During the heights of the pandemic Asians were targeted in violent attacks due to xenophobia pertaining the Covid-19 virus origins. Shootings where Asians were the victims shot up a whopping 90% in 2020.

Victim Race

